

Slav Communists Ask Stalin Reply To Cominform

Send Protests On Albanian Actions

by Walter Welebit
Belgrade, Yugoslavia, July 2.—(AP)—Yugoslav Communists went on the offensive today and urged Premier Stalin to rebuke the Cominform for its political attack on Marshall Tito.

The Belgrade radio broadcast the text of a Yugoslav note to Albania demanding that the Albanian government halt "gross and offensive" acts against Yugoslavia. Unless offenders are taken to task, investigation and the Yugoslav government informed of the results, and such acts prevented, the note threatened, "the Yugoslav government do not consider themselves responsible for the consequences which might result."

Two other sharp protest notes which Tanjug, the Yugoslav news agency, said had been handed to the Albanian embassy in Belgrade, accused Albania of cancelling all exports to Yugoslavia and stopping construction and survey work on railway lines to the Yugoslav border.

Fifteen thousand party members in a Belgrade mass meeting by resolution sent a telegram to Stalin in which they appealed directly to the Soviet leader to erase the "false accusations" made by the Cominform. The Cominform, a nine-nation Communist information bureau of which Yugoslavia is a member, has accused Marshall Tito and the Yugoslav communist central committee of being too nationalistic, entertaining grandiose ambitions, betraying the precepts of Marxism and being anti-Russian.

The Yugoslav committee slapped back, declaring the Cominform charges were lies and slander. "In effect, the Yugoslav mass meeting asked Stalin to rebuke one of the three or four most influential men in the Soviet Union, A. A. Zhdanov, chief Russian instigator of Cominform policies. Zhdanov is considered one of the chief rivals of Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in the event of the death of Stalin and a scramble for power inside Russia."

"Yugoslav resolution was taken after the central committee of the communist party of the Soviet Union already had endorsed the Cominform's action. Communists have emphasized, however, that the Cominform is an organization of parties and not of governments. As head of the Soviet government Stalin presumably could express a view different from that of the party."

'Flying Coal Cars' May Join Allied Berlin Air Fleet

Berlin, July 2.—(AP)—Allied experts said tonight "flying coal cars" may soon join the allied food shuttle into Russian-blockaded Berlin.

William H. Draper, U. S. under-secretary for the army, said he expected American planes soon would be bringing coal into western Berlin. The Russians have stopped shipments of industrial coal into the city in addition to their food blockade. The allied air-borne answer to beleaguered Berlin was growing bigger, but at a cost of millions of dollars and the ceaseless labor of thousands of men.

Soon 500 flights daily
High American and British officials indicated the flying food armada soon would swell to more than 500 flights daily to the two Berlin airports supplying 2,000,000 western sector Germans.

U. S. Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, U. S. air force commander, spoke of 360 daily flights by American planes alone when the air lift hits its peak. The British planned at least 200 flights. During the war LeMay directed the mass flights of B-29 superfortresses against Japan.

There were no available estimates of the cost of the air shuttle. Heavy rain and a low ceiling hampered the air shuttle during the day, and up to 2 p. m. only 84 American flights had arrived since last midnight. The British reported 83 up to noon. The big transports made radar-controlled landings.

Robertson, replying to a hint from the Soviet commander, Marshal Vasily D. Sokolovsky, that the Russians are watching closely for flight rules violations, declared:

"We will do all we can, but when 2,000,000 people are faced with starvation, we cannot stand on ceremony. Some risks will have to be taken."

TRUSTEE WALKS OFF
McAlester, Okla., July 2.—(AP)—George Kimes, bank robber serving a 50-year-term, escaped today from the state penitentiary.

Prison officials said Kimes, a trusty at the prison, "walked away" today when he went to the prison kennels to help feed some dogs.

Italian Industrial, Transport Workers Quit Work Friday

Rome, July 2.—(AP)—Romans walked home from work or squeezed into rickety trucks tonight after bus and tram drivers joined industrial workers in a half-day, country-wide strike.

Throughout Italy the noon-time whistle sent workers scurrying from metal producing, chemical, textile, mining, printing, building, coal handling and other industrial plants.

The walkout was in response to a "strike calendar" of the communist-dominated general confederation of labor to protest against what it calls low pay, high living costs and growing unemployment.

No incidents were reported as the strike took hold, and the people for the most part were in holiday mood.

Yugoslavian City Reported Bombed Thursday Night

Second Army Corps Headquarters, Kozane, Greece, July 2.—(AP)—An authoritative military source said an unidentified plane had bombed Bitolj, Yugoslavia, last night. The report of the bombing was not confirmed from any other source.

Bitolj is about 10 miles from the Greek frontier in the area where Greek government troops are at war with guerrillas.

The military source who can not be named said Bitolj is still without electric power. There were no other details.

The same source said 13 armed Yugoslav civilians surrendered today to a Greek frontier post northwest of Florina. There were no indications whether the Yugoslavs were pro- or anti-Tito.

Tucker Production Stopped By SEC Records Study

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—The Securities and Exchange Commission offered today to investigate records of the Tucker Corporation at the plant, but the company said it will remain closed until the study is finished.

Preston Tucker, president of the automobile manufacturing concern, said yesterday that surrendering of "truckloads" of files would make operations impossible. He halted production at the plant yesterday.

In federal court today, Thomas B. Hart, regional SEC director, said he offered to conduct the investigation at the plant. He said the SEC had made such an offer three times.

However, Attorney Thomas Thomas, representing the corporation, told newsmen Tucker's "credit will be jeopardized" until the investigation is completed.

The SEC began its investigation after charging last May that the corporation's registration statement, supplemental prospectus and 1947 annual report "contained untrue statements of material fact."

Surplus Revenue For Fiscal Year Exceeds 8 Million

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—The government took in $8,419,469.843 more than it spent in the fiscal year ending June 30.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder announced the surplus today. It is almost a billion dollars higher than President Truman predicted, and it is the biggest in history.

Even allowing for the $3,000,000,000 "set aside" by congress to meet future needs of the European recovery program, the budget dwarfs the previous record. That was $1,155,000,000 laid away 21 years ago when Calvin Coolidge was president.

The treasury has assigned about $6,000,000,000 of the surplus to reduction of the federal debt, bringing it to $252,365,000,000. The rest of the surplus helped to swell cash balances to $4,932,000,000.

RECOVER BODY
LaSalle, Ill., July 2.—(AP)—Sheriff Edward T. Ryan and his deputies today recovered the body of Frank Niedzela, 23, of Sheffield from the Illinois river at Starved Rock State Park. Niedzela was drowned yesterday while swimming.

CLAIM 7 GREEKS DESERT
London, July 2.—(AP)—The Greek guerrilla radio said seven air officers of the Athens government deserted today to the communist side. Tanjug, the Yugoslav news agency, reported the broadcast.

Strike In Steel-Owned Coal Mines Threatens

By Francis J. Kelly
Washington, July 2.—(AP)—A new coal strike threat arose today.

It involves 30,000 to 40,000 workers in the so-called "captive" mines owned by steel companies. They are members of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers, whose 400,000 members struck earlier this year.

The trouble came to a head today when 18 steel and coal companies refused to sign the new contract agreed to by a majority of the coal industry. The non-signing companies asked the National Labor Relations Board to find the union guilty of unfair labor practices.

All the miners now are taking their annual vacation. They are due back at work next Tuesday, but Lewis' union newspaper has hinted broadly that the employees of the captive mines won't work unless the new contract has been signed by then.

(A captive mine produces coal used exclusively by the industry which owns it.)

The new contract which Lewis negotiated with the majority of the industry became effective yesterday. Among its major provisions are a $1 a day increase for the miners, and a doubling of the miners' welfare and pension fund royalty to 20 cents a ton of coal mined.

More Money Lets Bureau Of Mines Add Inspectors

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—The nation's coal mines will be more rigidly inspected for safety this year than ever before, the Bureau of Mines said today.

Congress provided the bureau with $2,431,500 for coal mine inspections and investigations during the year which started yesterday, compared with $1,875,000 for the year just ended.

Bureau director James Boyd said the increase will permit the hiring of 50 additional inspectors, increasing the inspecting staff to 250. The bureau had asked for a 100-man increase.

The appropriation also provides for employment of some additional electrical and explosive engineers and teachers of safety regulations.

The bureau proposed to recruit and train the new inspectors quickly so that the increased inspections may start with the least possible delay.

Nazis Entertained Arab Leaders To Tune Of $90,000

Nuernberg, Germany, July 2.—(AP)—The German foreign office shelled out a lush $90,000 in entertaining Arab leaders during the war, an American war crimes court was told today in a trial of German diplomats.

The court received in evidence expense accounts approved by Joachim Von Ribbentrop, Nazi foreign minister who was hanged for war guilt. These accounts listed hand-outs to the exiled Mufti of Jerusalem Haj Amin El Hussein, and Rashid Ali Al Gailani, former Iraq premier, while they were refugees in Germany during the war.

The Mufti was given 100,000 marks ($40,000 at the old exchange rate), and Al Gailani 130,000 marks ($52,000).

The Germans apparently were trying to bolster their prestige in the Middle East, and used the entertainment route as a short-cut.

LONG SENATE CANDIDATE
Baton Rouge, La., July 2.—(AP)—Russell Long, 29-year-old son of the late Senator Huey P. Long, formally announced his candidacy for the United States Senate today.

Long will run for the unexpired term of the late Senator John Overton. He will be a candidate in the Democratic primary Aug. 31.

SHAKESPEARE IN THE RED
Stratford-on-Avon, Eng., July 2.—(AP)—William Shakespeare's plays are losing money in his home town. The council of governors of the Shakespeare Memorial theater reported today plays staged there from January, 1947, to March, 1948, went $21,152 in the red.

Marshall Says U. S. Berlin Policy Has GOP Approval

British Demand Action

by George Bria
Berlin, Saturday, July 3.—(AP)—The British military governor early today called on the Russians to open the highway to blockaded Berlin at once and name a date on which rail traffic can be restored.

In a letter to Marshal Vasily D. Sokolovsky, the Soviet commander in Germany, Gen. Sir Brian Robertson said he was ready to meet with the Russian official immediately "to discuss times and methods of reopening communications."

Air Supply Expands
As Robertson dispatched his letter an endless roar of engines in the black, rainy sky testified to the expanding Anglo-American effort to feed 2,500,000 inhabitants of western Berlin by air.

The British commander's letter was in reply to a communication from Sokolovsky earlier this week in which the Russian commander held forth hope of completing "technical repairs" on the Helmstedt-Berlin rail line before the city's food supply ran out.

Robertson said the Russians would have "no cause to fear your currency will be exposed to any risk" by keeping the highway at Helmstedt closed.

That was the reason given by the Russians for closing the road two weeks ago when a western power currency reform was decreed for western Germany.

Water Traffic Impeded
Robertson also complained that barge traffic up the Elbe river to Berlin "is not proceeding smoothly." He asked Sokolovsky to look into the matter and "give me an assurance that this important traffic will not be impeded."

The British military governor also renewed his offer to discuss the use of a single currency in Berlin under four-power control. The western powers brought in the new mark now in use in western Germany after the Russians gave Berliners living in the eastern sector of the city new Soviet zone money.

Experts dealing with the U. S. British air lift operation said last night "flying coal cars" may soon join the streams of food-carrying transport planes now winging into Berlin on an around-the-clock basis.

Anesthetic Blast Kills Woman On Operating Table

Utica, N.Y., July 2.—(AP)—A 33-year-old woman, undergoing an operation, was fatally injured today when an anesthetic exploded in an operating room of Utica Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Jennie Infusino died shortly after the blast occurred. Her surgeon and three nurses were injured.

Cneida county coroner Gerald Jones said the cause of the blast was undetermined.

Dr. B. A. Dilorio, the victim's surgeon, and Miss Gloria Romano, a nurse, both suffered temporary loss of hearing. Also injured were nurses Carol Gale of Utica and Doris Wood of Ilion. Both suffered shock.

Hospital attendants said Dr. Dilorio was closing an incision when cyclopropane gas exploded. The blast came from a rubber tube attached to a machine containing the gas, it was reported.

Divorcee Killed, Woman And 2 Girls Beaten In Tulsa

Tulsa, Okla., July 2.—(AP)—An attractive 42-year-old divorcee was found viciously bludgeoned to death in her apartment today. A few hours earlier, another woman and two teen-age girls were severely injured by a clubbing in another residence less than five blocks away.

Police theorized both attacks were committed by the same person, possibly a sadistic window-peeper.

The slain woman was Mrs. Ruth Norton, elevator operator in a downtown bank building. She had been struck repeatedly by a heavy instrument that tore great gashes in her head.

Her body was found on the blood-soaked bed of her apartment where she lived alone. It was discovered by a woman distributing telephone directories. Meanwhile, officers had been investigating an attack on Mrs. J. B. Cole, 38; her daughter, Doris, 13, and the latter's chum, Leona Gabbard, 14.

The two attacks took place in the same neighborhood where were unsolved killings of three other women have occurred within the last six years.

The luminous moss appears to glow with an iridescent light.

Georgia, Virginia Rally Behind 'Ike' Supporters

By the Associated Press
Democratic conventions in two southern states threw a total of 54 national convention votes to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower yesterday ("Friday").

The two actions were the most positive to date in a revived movement to draft General Ike for the party's presidential nomination and "ditch" President Truman. The general was standing silent on his January declaration that he can't accept a nomination.

Georgia Democrats unanimously instructed their 28 delegates to do all they can to make Eisenhower the standard-bearer.

Virginia Follows Suit
The Virginia convention told its 26 delegates only a few hours later to work for Eisenhower's nomination—and against the naming of anyone proposing for a federal civil rights program. Mr. Truman has proposed one, touching off a southern Democratic revolt against him.

Georgia and Virginia were the last two states to pick delegates to the convention, which begins at Philadelphia July 12.

Of the 1,234 delegates now chosen, 286 are pledged or instructed to vote for Mr. Truman, another 390 are claimed for the President and 414 are uncommitted.

Of the remainder, 54 now are instructed for Eisenhower, 583 are Anti-Truman but not committed elsewhere, 20 are pledged to Governor Thurmond of South Carolina and 111 are pledged to Governor Wright of Mississippi.

Claim Easy Nomination
President Truman's supporters say he is assured of many more than the 618 votes needed for the nomination, but those out to "ditch" the President says he can't even be sure of all those pledged to vote for him.

And James Roosevelt, son of Franklin D. Roosevelt, was reported to have called a meeting of pro-Eisenhower forces in Philadelphia July 10—two days before the Democratic national convention opens in that same city.

Arvey Tells Of Meeting
Word of the Philadelphia meeting came from Jacob M. Arvey, Chicago Democratic leader who said yesterday that Eisenhower's name could stampede the convention if it came before the delegates.

This new draft-Ike drive gained headway just 24 hours after Mr. Truman said confidently that he himself would be the Democratic nominee—and declined to talk about the Eisenhower question.

In Washington, some influential party members were talking up the idea of getting Mr. Truman to call a special session of Congress and challenge the G.O.P. to make good now on the platform pledges they made last week.

McGrath said there is pressure for a Congressional call from many directions.

23 Use Emergency Door To Escape From Burning Bus

Waukegan, Ill., July 2.—(AP)—Twenty-three greyhound bus passengers escaped through an emergency door today when the vehicle caught fire after colliding with an automobile. Four persons were injured in the accident.

The bus was enroute from Rockford, Ill., to Chicago. State police said the accident occurred when the eastbound automobile crashed into the rear of the southbound bus at Highway 12 and 120 near Volo in Lake county.

Most seriously injured were the automobile occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Cramer of Maquokette, Iowa. He suffered back and possible head injuries, and his wife suffered fractures of both legs, arm injuries and head cuts.

Roy Hagan of Minneapolis, a passenger in the bus, suffered burns about the face, arm and neck. The bus driver, Carl Hoffman of Chicago, also was injured, but not seriously.

Tongue-Lashing Given To CIO-UPW As Suit Is Vacated
Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—A suit in which the CIO-United Packinghouse Workers asked an injunction against Wilson and Co., was dismissed today by a federal judge who gave the union a tongue-lashing for its part in the recent bloody meat strike.

Federal Judge Michael L. Igoe, in dismissing the suit, said in his 14-page opinion:

"It is a matter of common knowledge that the union conducted the strike with such utter disregard of their obligations under the law that it was necessary for the governors of Minnesota and Iowa to call out militia to protect the lives and property of their citizens."

He was referring to rioting which broke out during the strike at South St. Paul and Newport, Minn., and Waterloo, Ia.

The strike of 100,000 packinghouse workers began May 16 and lasted until May 21 at most places. It lasted longer against Wilson and Co., but was finally settled.

The union's suit—filed shortly after the strike's end—alleged that Wilson violated its contract with the union by failing to pay sick benefits, to grant employees vacation, to abide by seniority provisions, to adjust grievances and to deduct and pay over dues to the union.

MAKE ROCKPORT TRIP
White Hall—Mr. and Mrs. Verne Powell accompanied Mrs. Lee Coates and Mrs. Emma C. Lambert to Rockport recently where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Borman at a family gathering in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gaunt of Ontario, Calif.

REDS LOSE IN FINLAND
Helsinki, Finland, July 2.—(AP)—Scattered parliamentary election results showed tonight gains for the social Democrats and conservatives. Losses were registered by the communist-led popular Democrats in the first returns.

Up to midnight only about 140,000 votes out of about 2,000,000 cast had been counted.

Ask Russians To Return 31 Vessels

by John M. Hightower
Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall disclosed today the western allies' joint strategy in the Berlin crisis is being worked out in consultation with Republican leaders in Congress.

Marshall, back from a 10 day hospital check-up, said the state department has been in close touch with Britain and France on measures to cope with the Soviet blockade—and with Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Rep. Eaton (R-N.J.) as well.

Consider Strong Approach
What action is decided on will come to light in due course, he told a new conference. A strong three-power approach to Moscow is under consideration. Britain's Foreign Secretary has said.

Eaton, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs committee, confirmed that he and Senator Vandenberg, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee have been consulted at every step of the development of U. S. policy in Berlin.

"I am in absolute accord with Secretary Marshall's position," Eaton said. "We propose to stay in Berlin, period."

Ask For Ships
In another development of American relations with Russia, Marshall announced that the United States has asked Moscow for the "immediate return" of 28 naval vessels and three ice breakers which were turned over to the Russians in wartime. The request was made in January and Russia still has the ships.

Return of these vessels is one aspect of the long drawn out negotiations for settlement of a Soviet $11-200,000,000 lend lease account with this country. Although Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Penysushkin has submitted a proposed new formula, Moscow and Washington are reported still far apart on terms.

Dulles Not Included
Recent consultation with Republican leaders did not include John Foster Dulles, Governor Dewey's foreign policy adviser. But Marshall said the reason was his own absence at Walter Reed hospital and that Dulles has been busy.

Tanned and fit in appearance, Marshall opened his news conference by referring to the close consultation being given to the Berlin crisis. On other matters he said:

Yugoslav—The state department naturally is closely following developments in the Cominform's quarrel with Marshall Tito, the Yugoslav dictator. Marshall declined further comment.

Other Points Discussed:
Brussels Pact—The United States is conferring with the five-nation Brussels Pact countries on a date for a conference, following up the Senate approval of the Vandenberg resolution, endorsing U. S. support for a western European union.

Turkey—On a suggestion ascribed to the Turkish foreign minister for a formal alliance between Turkey and the United States, Marshall noted the U. S. has done much to support Turkey and has a deep interest in maintaining Turkey as a free government. But an alliance, he said, would involve consideration of American relations with all other countries.

Dewey Gives Full Support To Loan To United Nations
Albany, N. Y., July 2.—(AP)—Governor Thomas E. Dewey today extended full support to the proposed $65,000,000 United States loan to the United Nations for construction of a U. N. headquarters in New York City.

The Republican presidential nominee, in a statement, said he hoped and believed the loan would be "carried out." He noted that the United States "has committed itself to advance" the necessary funds.

The loan authorization was approved by the Senate in the last session but was tacked to an omnibus bill in the House and died.

Failure of the House to approve the authorization in the closing adjournment rush inspired reports that Russia and her satellites might attempt to seek removal of U. N. headquarters to Europe.

Luminous moss is found growing in damp, gloomy caves and old cellars.

WEATHER
The Norbury Sanatorium, cooperative observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau, yesterday reported official temperatures for Friday as: high, 91; low, 62; and at 7 p. m., 82.

Forecast for Monday—Fair and hot Saturday.

RESERVE DEFENSE POOL
Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Legislation to put 254 war plants into a reserve defense pool was signed into law today by President Truman.

The whole program would call for spending $400,000,000 over a period of three years.

IN SPITE OF USUAL EVIL TALK NEXT PRESIDENT WILL BE OKAY

The first reaction, when a new presidential candidate is chosen, is sentimental. If your man was Tom Dewey you are elated, and all is right with the world. If your man was one of those who tried vainly to "stop Dewey," you're bitter and wonder what's the use of it all and what this sad world is coming to.

That's the first reaction. Then we cool off. Maybe we're Democrats, and wouldn't vote for George Washington or Abraham Lincoln reincarnate, on the GOP ticket. Maybe we're Republicans so confirmed that we would vote for Judas Iscariot if he got the nomination.

But if we belong to that vast army that uses a party label but isn't afraid to cross party lines on issues or personalities, about now we're getting down to earth. We're discounting heavily the wild and often slanderous gossip that was circulated by partisans of all candidates against all other candidates. We remember that such stories always circulate at such times.

Right now, of course, we're thinking of the bitter struggle among Dewey, Taft, Stassen, Warren and a herd of dark horses. It seems unlikely that this will have any counterpart when the Democrats gather in Philadelphia in July, because a president holds the party reins too firmly. But when the two major candidates and Henry Wallace get going the air will be full of rumor, gossip, vilification, slander, started by evil minds and spread, in part, by the innocent.

In this relatively calm interim let's face the facts. Most elections are lost, not won. However ethical the candidate and his top associates may be, the ward workers know that it is easier to turn voters against the other fellow than to put wings on your own angel.

From now on, unpleasant stories about Dewey, his past, his personal life, his political morals, his personality, his deals for support, his campaigning methods, are going to be a dime a dozen.

When Truman is nominated or, improbably, when his party names somebody else, the same sort of stories will be circulated about him.

It always has been so. The stories circulated about every presidential candidate and every president are shocking.

Yet we've always put into the White House a man who was personally honest, of above average intelligence, utterly patriotic. Not, usually, the best we had, but the best we thought we could elect. And except for what their friends did to Grant and Harding, we've had national administrations that were pretty clean and decent.

A lot of folks are going to be disappointed when the votes are counted next fall. But while we overwork partisanship this summer let's keep perspective. Whatever happens the resident of the White House after next January 20 is going to be clean, decent, patriotic, energetic and public-spirited—a credit to the democratic process.

Communication

Jacksonville Journal Courier
To the editor:
After reading the article in the Courier of June 26th regarding a decision made at a meeting of the Humane Society, I wonder if it is fair to the public to decide that any dog must be kept on the owner's property. Just how would one go about trying to explain to your dog that he must stay on just one lot or run the chance of being picked up by the dog catcher. After all we do pay a tax on our pets, and if we are forced to keep them tied up in our back yard, why bother with the dog tax? I think I have plenty of dog lovers that will agree with me on this issue, and surely something can be worked out, so the Humane Society will not have to be accused of being inhuman to our pets.

Yours truly,

Jansen Attends Hi-Y And Tri-Y National Congress In Ohio

Wilson C. Jansen, secretary of the Jacksonville YMCA, and director of the Youth Center has recently returned from the national Congress of Hi-Y and Tri-Y clubs.

The Congress was held at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio from June 25-30. More than one thousand delegates represented every state in the union. Observers from several foreign nations also attended.

The purpose of the Congress, Jansen stated, was to get all the Hi-Y and Tri-Y clubs together and discuss problems common to all. The Congress, after discussing these problems, then legislates, recommends, or issues directives to the local units.

The action of the national Congress is not binding upon the local clubs, but only sets up a standard or norm which they may follow at their will.

Jansen Leads Discussion
Jansen led a panel discussion on the subject of "dating and mating." Thirty-two members, composed of an equal number of boys and girls, were on the panel. Problems pertinent to the subject were ably and intelligently discussed. Jansen said he found it interesting that this group did not like the idea of "going steady." The reason assigned was the boy and the girl found they were too limited in their associations with others.

Jansen said his panel expressed concern because adults in the community did not show interest in youth's problems. Also on the program were two men important in the field of adolescent psychology. These were Ray A. Dickerson, author of several leading books, and Dr. Ray A. Burkhardt, noted doctor from Columbus, Dr. Burkhardt appeared in Jacksonville last winter.

The Congress worked up an interesting travel pool. Each delegate paid $5 into the pool. This money was paid to delegates who had to travel more than 800 miles to get to Oxford, thereby eradicating the differential.

The next convention of the Congress will be in 1951. Jansen expressed desire that the local groups would be able to send delegates.

Ashland

Ashland—Walter R. Lohman and Marguerite Hager were named to serve on the grand jury of the Cass county circuit court for the October term. On the supplemental list are Harold Evans and Joe Gutmann.

Glenn E. Mikesell and aunt, Mrs. E. Farmer, and Mrs. Rice of Tunnel Hill, O., visited here with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Collins. They were returning from a trip to the west coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hammeck and daughter, Sandra, returned Tuesday from a four-day visit in Pontiac at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Ralph Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Oak Vawter and children have returned from a visit in Avon, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Mitchell.

The Misses Betty Yancy and Salt-Sue Danenberger left Tuesday to attend a three-day 4-H meeting at Old Salem State park. They are delegates of the local 4-H club.

The Rev. and Mrs. Roger Ort-mayer and children of Alliance, O., are guests at the home of Mrs. Ort-mayer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lohman.

Phil Price returned Tuesday from St. John's hospital in Springfield, where he had been a surgical patient for more than a week.

Mrs. Kate Newell underwent a surgical operation at Our Saviour's hospital in Jacksonville.

Ashland Church Scene Of Pretty Double-Ring Rites

Vows of marriage were exchanged by Miss Norma Jean Skinner and William C. Armstrong in a double-ring wedding ceremony which took place Sunday, June 27, at 3:30 p. m. at the Methodist church in Ashland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Faibert T. Skinner, rural route two, New Berlin. Mr. Armstrong is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Armstrong of Oakford.

The service was performed by the Rev. H. Russell Coulter of Meredosia before an altar banked with baskets of white flowers, flanked by candelabra. "Always," "I Love You Truly" and "Because" were sung by Mrs. Eva Mae Estler, accompanied at the piano by Miss Barbara Moss, who also played the wedding marches.

The attendants were Miss Lois Armstrong, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, and Donald Skinner, brother of the bride, as best man. Wendell Freeman and Edward Armstrong were the ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Armstrong

elry was a double-strand of pearls a gift of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor wore a dress of rose crepe with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Both the mother of the bride and the bridegroom's mother wore navy dresses and corsages of white carnations.

A reception at the home of the brides parents followed the ceremony. The serving was done by Mrs. Harold McClain and Miss Maxine LaKamp.

The bride was graduated from Jacksonville High school in 1944 and until recently was employed in the office of the New Method Book Bindery. Mr. Armstrong attended Petersburg High school and Bradley University. He was in the U. S. Navy for 39 months.

The couple have returned from a brief wedding trip and plan to make their home in Chicago, where Mr. Armstrong will attend the Industrial Training Institute.

Gold Star Mothers To Be Honored At Griggsville Fair

More than 100 Gold Star Mothers of the Pike County area will be special guests of honor at the dedication of the Griggsville Fairgrounds on Sunday afternoon, July 4th at 2:30 p. m. Richard Yates Rowe, State Treasurer and Republican candidate for lieutenant governor will deliver the dedicatory address. He will be introduced by Senator Frank P. Dick of Quincy.

The Griggsville fair, originally established in 1888, is one of the oldest institutions of its kind in the state. For many years it had the reputation of having the fastest half mile harness race track in the state. The track consists of about 70 acres. The Griggsville fair, interrupted during the war is expected to return to its former importance in western Illinois.

The fairgrounds was purchased and rehabilitated by use of a $25,000 fund donated by citizens of Pike County community and will be presented to Griggsville Post No. 213 of the American Legion.

JOAN WINS HER LAURELS

As Joan had promised, she was down at the pool at 9:30, the following morning. The instructor began the course in life saving with this statement: "An important way for any girl to be prepared for service in a waterfront emergency is to have the knowledge of what to do and the ability to do it. There are some things every person around a waterfront should know. Calling for help and trying to place in the hands of a drowning person a life buoy, a rope, or a board is the best assistance whether or not you are wearing a life saving emblem. If there is a boat nearby and you are able to manage it, you may row to the person and let him hold onto the stern until safety is reached or until other assistance arrives."

Take Care of Yourself
"Now, girls, with your special knowledge of swimming you have additional responsibility. You should perfect your own swimming so that in case of need you can safely take care of yourself, leaving the person who might otherwise have tried to help you free to save someone else. Here is where your ability to float is especially important, for you may sometimes find yourself in such rough water or so far from shore that just keeping afloat until help comes is better than trying to swim. You must be fully able to take care of yourself in water before you attempt to rescue another person from the water by swimming."

In the days that followed this he demonstrated various carries, approaches, defense and release, and the recovery of a submerged victim. He directed the girls in practicing these requirements on each other. Before the final test the instructor summed up the course thus: "Girls, most drownings happen because people don't follow the Red Cross slogan: Row, use a boat if available; Throw, a life buoy if no boat is available; Go, yourself when equipment is not at hand; and Tow, to safety by cross chest carry."

Keep Your Head
"I think if you keep your head and realize the importance and order of these four words, there will be no drownings when you are near." At the end of the course there was excitement among the girls. Each wondered who would receive the emblems. On the third night before camp was dismissed, there was a big bonfire, at which time the names were to be announced. The instructor stated that forty-four girls had earned the junior life saving badge, and four of the older girls had also passed the senior life saving requirements. Tension mounted as Joan listened to the junior list.

"Joan Porter," she finally heard and relaxed with a sigh. As the badges and emblems were awarded, the instructor made this remark: "These forty-eight girls are to report immediately for your printed instructions for tomorrow's trip. Get to bed early; sleep well; and show up at the pier at 6:00 a. m. tomorrow morning with your gear. You will then be given your assignment. See you tomorrow!"

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

4-H Activities Are Important In Community

Who may belong to a 4-H Club?

Young people between the ages of ten and twenty-one in a community organize themselves into a group of not less than five, with their own officers and local program under the guidance of an adult man or woman advisor, who serves voluntarily.

Each member has at least one individual project centering around a problem of the home or the farm. They serve as officers and on committees at the local, county, state, and national levels. Activities include camps, plays, games, songs, exhibits, tours, hikes, and social meetings.

The 4-H program is helping to increase farm incomes, improve standards of living, increase the satisfaction gained from community life, and is helping to prepare young people, everywhere in the United States, for positions of responsibility in their communities.

Membership Worth While
Membership in a local 4-H Club is one of the most interesting and worthwhile experiences that can come to any boy or girl. Members learn to solve problems similar to those that arise in adult organizations.

There are no membership dues in 4-H Club unless the local constitution calls for a small fee, and all project books are given to the local clubs free of cost. Because of these two facts, boys and girls, who otherwise would be barred from the organization, are able to belong.

4-H work not only requires the interests of the members but also of the parents.

Takes Interested Leaders
It takes an interested adult leader to keep the club going. Extension agents and local leaders may kindle the flame of 4-H in youth, but it takes the backing of the parents to keep it burning.

It is a wise extension agent or local leader who explains to parents what 4-H is all about and its significance in the home, to their children, to the community, and to the nation.

As soon as members enroll, they are entitled to wear the 4-H membership button and display the 4-H Club membership sticker or any other membership insignia. The name and emblem are protected by an act of The Congress of the United States of America.

Not only rural boys and girls are given an opportunity to belong to 4-H; if boys and girls would look around them, they would no doubt find a club in their community.

My Experiences At Girls' Nation

By RUTH ANN CLANTON
1947 Lieutenant Governor
Illini Girls' State

The social life of the girls attending the first session of Girls' Nation was very active.

The reception and buffet dinner at the home of the American University President F. Douglas, the first evening, was only the beginning of the many social activities.

Band Concert
After dinner on Monday evening, August 11, the United States Army Band entertained the girls with an hour concert.

On Tuesday evening the N.E.A. Girls' Nation Dinner was held. The girls ate with teachers and educators from all over the United States. Mr. Arthur Fleming, director of Civil Service, addressed the group on the topic "The Government as an Employer."

The next afternoon the girls heard addresses by Mrs. John David Lodge, and Captain Joy Bright Hancock, director of the Women's Reserve, United States Naval Reserve.

That same night the gymnasium was transformed into a beautifully lighted ballroom, and became the scene of a large dance. The music was furnished by the Naval School of Music. Not a girl lacked a dancing partner and the dance proved to be a huge success. Just before the girls went to sleep they were called to the windows of their dormitories and were gallantly serenaded by a group of college men.

For the girls who liked to swim the University gave them access to the beautiful indoor-pool. Then tennis courts were also turned over to the Girl Nations.

Paper Published
A group of the girls spent much of their spare time putting out the Girls' Nation paper, which was named the "Blue and White." This paper also sponsored a pin-up contest. The pin-up candidates were the boy friends of the Girls' Nations. Their pictures were turned in and the judges chose the winner from these entries. The girls had a lot of fun with this contest, and of course, each girl believed her entry should be the winner.

These are only a few of the many extra activities, and they indicate that social life did not lag in the least at Girls' Nation.

Think About It

By HELEN THOMAS

When you begrudgingly get up in the morning and mutter half-aloud that this is another school day, just stop to think a minute. All right, so it's just routine to you, but let's think a minute about the kids our age in Europe.

On cold days we step inside a well heated building where we are able to spend the day gaining our education. It sounds common and everyday to us, but what about our friends across the ocean? In many of the cities that were so heavily bombed, there aren't even the buildings left and what are left can't be sufficiently heated because of the scarcity of fuel.

Other Shortages
You might absently minded think, "Well, why don't they wear warmer clothes?" But how? Clothes are as scarce and precious as the other necessities.

When noon comes, we all rush to eat our lunches. Maybe we have an extra apple, or a sandwich with only a couple bites out of it left over. We don't want to eat it so we think nothing of tossing it in the trash can. Next time you try that just remember this: "THE WEEKLY diet of an English laborer equals what an average American eats in ONE MEAL." To us it seems hard to believe but it's a fact.

It's the everyday things that we take for granted that are the articles of luxury to our young friends overseas.

TEACHING VACANCY
White Hall—Superintendent W. A. Knoop has announced that a vacancy exists in the White Hall high school for a Latin and English teacher. Those interested are advised to contact Mr. Knoop.

Shirley Britten of Villa Ridge was also the unfortunate recipient of a death message Thursday, announcing the passing of her grandmother. Shirley is staying for the remainder of the session, as her parents desired that she remain and miss none of the fine citizenship training program just reaching its peak.

One of the ladies who remains very much in the background at Girls State is Mrs. Myrtle Webber of Chicago, that very efficient lady in the office of Dean Suthers, who cuts stenils, types letters, and answers questions all day. It is these behind-the-scenes-people, who help to make Illini Girls State such a successful part of the Auxiliary's activities.

You've all seen that tall blonde, and heard the girls calling her "Honey Bee"? Well, that's Mrs. Lowell Allen of Belleville, secretary to the Girls State Chairman, Mrs. Hamilton. Mrs. Allen's duties are varied... she helps with banquet preparations... sees that a variety of problems are handled properly etc.

CONTEMPT OF COURT
Harry B. Dobson was sentenced to sixty days imprisonment at the Illinois State Farm Wednesday for contempt of court. The decree was rendered by Judge Glen Smith in circuit court in which Dobson was found guilty of violating a court injunction growing out of a divorce

TWELVE GIRLS SELECTED FOR PLAY

Twelve girls were selected Monday evening to be characters in a one-act play, a fantasy, Our Country, arranged and directed by Howard C. Hansen, of the MacMurray College faculty. The production will be given at 4:30 p. m. Sunday July 4th in the Little Theatre. Patriotic music will be directed behind the scenes by our Illini Girls State favorite, Grace Peterson.

STATE OF THE STATE

Mrs. Bob Strawn, the former Mary Beth Robinson, and her small son David visited at Illini Girls State Thursday afternoon. Mary Beth served as Attorney General in 1941 at Girls State, and never fails to return and see the current citizens. Nice seeing you Mary Beth!

Dean Suthers and retiring Governor Carlee were guests of the local radio station Friday at 11:15 in an interview with Mr. Fairburn of the station personnel.

Counselors of Kickapoo County, Martha Lucas and Lucille Henderson, shot are quite versatile. The Post Office edited a list of Illini Girls Staters for the Jacksonville postmaster, so that any mail which arrives too late for delivery at Illini Girls State may be forwarded to the respective girls home address. These two counselors typed a list. This way there will be no letters going to the "dead letter office."

Staff members at Illini Girls State spent a pleasant hour Thursday evening, when they gathered in the lounge adjacent to their rooms and presented Dean Suthers with some lovely and appropriate gifts for her recently arrived grandchild. Refreshments were served the ladies, and much merriment accompanied the opening of the packages for young Michael.

1947 officers of Illini Girls State have been busy with special duties throughout the week, and well as their official duty of taking turns presiding in the assemblies. They have assisted in preparation of the Saturday evening banquet, participated in radio quiz programs, etc. A swell bunch of girls, we're proud of you!

Mrs. James Milner of Springfield has been the busy and efficient postmistress at Illini Girls State. Mrs. Milner has sold over 2,000 stamps and innumerable postal cards during the first four days of Girls State, and she was wondering Thursday just what the grand total would be.

Mrs. T. J. Sullivan was a late arrival at the 1948 session of Illini Girls State, having just returned from California. Mrs. Sullivan was the lone nurse in 1947 but this year she had a grand co-worker, who has been on the job twenty-four hours a day for the benefit and comfort of Illini Girls Staters, Mrs. Mancel Talcot.

Donna Barclay, who was elected Auditor of Public Accounts had to leave Girls State before the ovations following her election started. Donna was called to her home at Elmwood by the death of her grandfather with whom she had lived her entire life. Our sincere sympathy, Donna, and congratulations, too on winning your race for office. We'll see you again next year at the 1949 session of Girls State.

Shirley Britten of Villa Ridge was also the unfortunate recipient of a death message Thursday, announcing the passing of her grandmother. Shirley is staying for the remainder of the session, as her parents desired that she remain and miss none of the fine citizenship training program just reaching its peak.

One of the ladies who remains very much in the background at Girls State is Mrs. Myrtle Webber of Chicago, that very efficient lady in the office of Dean Suthers, who cuts stenils, types letters, and answers questions all day. It is these behind-the-scenes-people, who help to make Illini Girls State such a successful part of the Auxiliary's activities.

Berea Girls' 4-H Achievement Day Set For August 4

The Berea Girls' 4-H club held its regular meeting Wednesday, June 30, at the home of Evelyn and Mary Virginia Farmer. Roll call was answered by telling what each had learned during the year.

Evelyn Farmer, from the club, has been chosen as the Ashland high school delegate for the national FHA convention. She will leave July 5.

4-H Achievement Day is August 4; other highlights in coming activities are 4-H camp, July 21 to 23 and a demonstration at the Home Bureau on August 2. Two girls from the Berea club will participate in this demonstration. They are Marian Stewart and Marilyn Norfleet.

Plans were made for a picnic on July 2, honoring Sue Ricken, Peggy Farmer, and Virginia Farmer for remembering to bring the dresses they made last year. Cookie-baking champion, Marilyn Norfleet, was also invited because she baked 12 batches of cookies during the year.

Talks were given by Sue Ricken, Peggy Reside, Marian Stewart, Ruth Ann Martin and JoAnn Shutt, who also gave a demonstration on "special cookies." A reading was given by Ruth Ann Martin; Mary Grady gave a reading, as did Joyce Shutt.

The ice cream social scheduled for July 23 was postponed until a later date, not yet decided upon.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Luster, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Norfleet, Mrs. Tholen, Mrs. Farmer, Mrs. Reside and the leader, Mrs. Stewart.

Bluffs

Bluffs—Lorraine and Leo Watson left Tuesday to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Watson, in Wisconsin. They were accompanied to Springfield by Mrs. Clyde Williams and Mrs. Margaret Watson.

Rufus Little is a patient at St. John's Hospital in Springfield. He was visited Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellerman and daughter, Clara, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fargo and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Knoepfel.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Meier and family of Peoria are spending a three-weeks vacation here with Mr. Meier's parents and other relatives in the Bluffs and Winchester community.

Bill Merris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Merris, is now employed at the Allis-Chalmers company in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heck are parents of a son born Saturday morning.

Mary Jane Mains is attending Illini Girls' State, being held this week at MacMurray college.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schoessler of Chicago are visiting here with Mrs. Schoessler's parents and other relatives.

Harlan Schone and Kenneth Hut-ton have returned from Springfield where they attended Premier Boys State.

The Golden Maidenhair moss once was thought to have the power of strengthening the hair of anyone who used it in a wash.

Former Local Man And Wife Parents Of Second Child

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cooper are the parents of a son, Stephen, born Friday, June 25, at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago. Cooper, a staff announcer at station WGN in Chicago, is a former resident of this city and carried the Journal while attending Jacksonville high school.

His mother, Mrs. Adelia Cooper, resides on Jacksonville route four. Before going to Chicago, Cooper was a radio announcer in Peoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper also have a daughter, Marsha Lee, aged sixteen months. Mrs. Cooper is the former Dorothy Marsh of Kimball, Neb.

REAL ESTATE BOARD TO HOLD MEETING

The regular meeting of the Real Estate Board will be held Friday evening at the Dunlap hotel. No definite business is planned.

C. L. Rice, president of the board, is confined to the hospital. Earl Gro-jan, program chairman of the board, stated that the board will go to the hospital to pay a visit to Mr. Rice.

Glasgow

Glasgow—Undemonstrational gospel services conducted last week in the town hall closed Sunday evening. The final service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Gamed and the Rev. Mr. Cox of Bluffs. A large crowd attended the services.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson of Manchester and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Robinson of Waverly were dinner guests last Sunday of Mrs. Florence Young, and mother, Mrs. Minerva Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graul and children, Ginger and Timmy, and Mrs. Hilda Fundel and sister, Mary of Alton were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Drake.

Harold Wright of St. Elmo is visiting at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Drake and son, Ronie.

Carol Dean Newingham of near Nortonville is here this week assisting his uncle, Charles Jones in farming.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Drake and grandson, Ronnie Drake, were recent callers on Mr. Drake's mother, Mrs. Minerva Coker in Patterson.

Mrs. Randall Killebrew and son, Randy of Winchester called on relatives and friends here Tuesday evening.

Phil Blanche Brown and sons, Phillip and James, of Grafton were here the first of the week visiting among relatives.

QUARTERLY UNION MEETING

Nortonville—The quarterly Women's Missionary union meeting of the Sandy Creek Baptist association will be held with the Youngblood church on Tuesday, July 6. The principal speaker will be Walter Nunn, state royal ambassador counselor. The meeting will get underway at 10 a. m., standard time.

There were 2,000,000 tractors on United States farms in January, 1947.

McKenley Smashes World 400 Meter Record In A. A. U.

Milwaukee, July 2.—(AP)—Herb McKenley of Jamaica, with a burst of blinding speed that carried him 15 yards ahead of the field, bettered the world record for 400 meters today with a time of :45.9. The accepted record is :46.0 held by Rudolf Harbig of Germany and Grover Klemmer of the United States.

McKenley, running in the national amateur athletic union championships, made his sensational mark in the first heat of the senior 400 meter trials.

The race was run in staggered lanes around the Marquette University track. There was a brisk quartering wind, and there was every indication that conditions were standard, which would pave the way to official acceptance of the almost incredible time.

Earlier this year McKenley ran 440 yards in :46.0 at Berkeley, Calif., bettering his own world record of :46.3. As the 440 yards is almost three yards longer than the 400 meters, McKenley's time today is consistent with his earlier mark.

McKenley won by a full 15 yards over Joe Nebelon of Washington State college, with Orval Johnson of the University of Michigan a close third.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—Livestock traders closed out the pre-holiday trade today, generally steady prices on sharply lower receipts of cattle and sheep. Hogs, however, were in line with trade expectations and sold at levels unevenly steady to $1.00 lower.

Most good and choice butcher hogs brought $29.50 to $29.90, one load merling $29.25. Sows took $19.00 to $24.50.

Choice steers failed to put in an appearance and the best of the market went to choice heifers at $37.00. Medium to good steers and heifers ranged from $26.00 to $35.00. Beef cows made $19.00 to $23.00 while bulls topped at $23.00 and vealers at $28.00. Good to choice stock steer calves fetched $30.00.

Native spring lambs continued to top at $31.50. Choice shorn slaughter ewes edged up to $11.75. Total receipts included 6,500 hogs, 700 cattle, 200 calves, and 700 sheep.

East St. Louis Livestock

National Stockyards, Ill., July 2.—(AP)—USDA—Hogs, 4,000; barrows and gilts all weights up to 230 lbs 75 to 100 higher than Thursday, spotted; uneven market on heavier weights and sows; generally strong to 50 higher; bulk 180-230 lbs 22.25-25.00; top 25.50; this representing new high since last December; few 240-270 lbs 27.50-28.75; heavier kinds scarce; few 310-340 lbs 24.50-25.00; some 400-500 lbs 22.50-23.25; 130-150 lbs 25.00-27.00; 100-120 lbs 22.00-24.00; sows 21.50-23.00.

Cattle, 900; calves, 900; meager number of heifers and mixed butchers yearlings about steady in cleanup trade; bulls and vealers unchanged; few common and medium cows 15.50-23.00; canners and cutters 14.50-18.00; medium and good bulls 22.50-24.00; cutter and common 17-20.00; good and choice vealers 24.00-27.00; common and medium 15.00-24.00; culls 9.00-14.00.

Three Lead Changes In All Star Voting

Eddie Stanky, Boston Braves second baseman, Andy Pafko, Chicago Cubs third baseman, and Hal Jeffcoat, Cubs center fielder, Friday regained leads which they previously had relinquished in the Journal Courier All Star baseball poll.

The gains were scored in another day of heavy voting as the deadline rapidly approached. All votes must be received by the Jacksonville newspapers not later than noon Monday to be tabulated.

All votes received here are forwarded to the Chicago Tribune, national polling place. Final results, both national and local, will be published early next week.

Stanky, Pafko and Jeffcoat are anything but "in" following the Friday tabulation. Their leads are scant and could easily be erased in a single day of voting.

Another Close Race

Another close race is still in progress in the American league, where Cleveland's Gordon maintains a six-vote advantage over Boston's Doerr. The two have been locked in a tight battle since the first week of balloting.

Other leaders seem to be fairly secure, with sizeable margins established. Leading the parade of stars are:

New York Stock Market

New York, July 2.—(AP)—Railway issues steamed in front of the stock market today, followed closely by the oil group.

Gains of fractions to well over a point spotted the list. Minus signs cropped out here and there but losses were mostly in small fractions.

Trading got off to an unusually slow start but later picked up a little momentum. Turnover was at the rate of around 600,000 shares for the full session, which would make it one of the slowest in the last three months.

Moose Juniors Play Tonight In State Meet

The Jacksonville Moose Juniors softball team, runners-up in the Waverly junior district tournament last week, will play in the state junior tournament at Fitzpatrick Memorial Stadium in Springfield tonight.

The Jacksonville outfit is matched with the winner of last night's first-round game between the Peñin K. and K. tavern and the Taylorville Nu-Way cleaners. The contest is at 7 p.m. (DST).

A victory for the Moose tonight will move them into the bottom bracket semi-final contest. It will be played Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Finals are that night at 8 o'clock.

Other teams in the bottom bracket include the Fitzpatrick Lumberjacks, World's tournament semi-finalists last season, the Canton V.F.W. and the Litchfield V.F.W.

Markets at a Glance

New York, July 2.—(AP)—Stocks—Higher; rails, oils lead advance. Bonds—Mixed; price changes narrow. Cotton—Lower; favorable private crop reports. Chicago—Wheat—Weak; expansion of Kansas harvest. Corn—Weak; July down sharply; cash grain weak. Oats—Easy; July down most; good crop weather. Soybeans—Easy in sympathy with grains. Hogs—Unevenly steady to $1.00 lower; practical top $29.00. Cattle—Generally steady; top $37.

Lynn Leads Myers To Victory; Nesco Defeats Elks Nine

Myers Bros. Pete Lynn lined a double into left field with one out in the bottom of the seventh inning Friday night to score two teammates and win his own ball game, a hard fought 8-7 decision over the House of Clay at Nichols Park diamond.

The AA city league contest was filled with fireworks from start to finish as the Clay aggregation took an early 7-1 lead, then saw Myers Bros. pull to within one run with a big fifth and win the tilt on Lynn's mighty blast.

Although Lynn allowed ten hits, he retired the side in one-two-three order in each of the last three frames. Meanwhile, the Myers team staged a comeback at the plate to push across the necessary runs.

Walks figured prominently in the big fifth, there being only three hits and no errors in the frame. The two House of Clay errors came in the second and resulted in only one run.

Myers Bros. was charged with but one miscue. It was combined with four hits for three tallies in the third inning. Three hits and a walk gave the losers three more runs in the fourth. But that ended their scoring. Not a man reached first from that point on.

Myers Bros. got only seven hits off Dick Johnson. Three came in the third and were wasted.

The House of Clay was never headed during the contest until Lynn drove across the winning runs.

Nesco climbed all over the Elks in taking a 13-0 A loop win in the opener.

After a scoreless first inning, Nesco pushed across nine runs in the second to ice the tilt.

Vineyard, the winning pitcher, gave up only two hits and his mates committed only one error.

Deltz and Carter did the mound work for the losers. Carter, who came in during the second inning, was very effective for three innings, but was touched for four runs in the sixth.

TRADING SLACKENS AS CORN-GROWING WEATHER APPEARS

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—Grains slipped on the Board of Trade today as rising temperatures in the mid-west forecast an excellent corn growing week-end.

The July corn contract was the weakest spot in the pits, dropping around 2 cents at times. Weakness in the cash market was in part responsible for this slump. Premiums at which buyers were willing to take cash corn over the July future were reduced 1 to 3 cents.

Wheat was off around a cent at times despite moderate foreign loan business. Trading was not active in view of Monday's holiday. The usual short session will be held tomorrow. Receipts were: Wheat 50 cars, corn 86, oats 22 and soybeans 10. Wheat closed 11-11 lower, July, $2.04-1/2, corn was 1 to 38 lower, July $2.19-1/2, oats were 1-13 lower, July 89-1/2, and soybeans were 1 to 2-1/2 lower, July 44-1/2.

Actual Games Top Tryout Program Here Today

Baseball games, in which every player can participate, will be the feature of today's Washington Senators tryout camp at Illinois college's Russel Field.

Jack Rossiter, well-known Midwestern scout for the American league club, said yesterday that each boy who appears will be given ample opportunity to demonstrate his ability.

The school will get underway at 9:30 a.m. (DST) and will be for the one day only.

Boys between the ages of 16 and 22 are eligible to compete. They should bring their own shoes and gloves if they have them.

Bitter Reprieve

By Drexel Drake Copyright, 1948, Charles H. Huff, Distributed by NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Playboy Marcus Sterling owes Harry Bindle a good deal of money. He cannot pay. His wealthy wife, Miriam, has refused him the money. He comes home late after dodging Bindle all day. Miriam is out at 11 to collect. Marcus is desperate. Miriam comes wearing her fabulous diamond necklace. In order to get her out of the library before Bindle arrives, Marcus gives her a doped drink. Keved up, he speaks cruelly. Miriam, wounded, takes her drink to her room. At 11 on the dot, Bindle shows up. He demands the money under threat. Marcus, cornered, gets an idea. He tells Bindle he's going up to see his wife.

UPSTAIRS, Sterling went directly to his own room, closing the door before flicking on the light. From a dresser drawer he took a pair of fabric gloves and slipped his hands into them. He carefully wiped the keys he had again over one finger. He paused at his desk long enough to take a small pencil flashlight from a drawer. He turned off the light, opened the door quietly, and closed it after stepping into the hall.

He stood a moment at the door of his wife's room, listening. He could hear nothing. He turned the knob stealthily, pushed the door back a bare crack. The room was dark, silent. He widened the opening, stepped through noiselessly, pushed back the door to shut out the stray light from the hall. Erect, rigid, Sterling waited. After a moment he was able just barely to detect the sound of regular breathing from across the room. He moved cautiously until he stood beside the bed.

Windows at the end of the room, their shades raised, admitted grayish night light to which his eyes were becoming accustomed. He could make out just vaguely his wife's form beneath the covers. One bare arm lay exposed. He saw her face in shadowy profile against the pillow. He satisfied himself that she was asleep. . . . He moved around the foot of the bed, treading lightly on his toes. He swept the beam of his small flashlight quickly across the top of the dressing table. He saw the drink Miriam had brought up with her. Fully two-thirds of it was still in the glass. The discovery unnerved him momentarily. . . . Miriam might not be safely asleep. Then he made another discovery that was frightening. Beside the glass was the small bottle with the ominous red label. He had left it far back among other bottles. That meant Miriam had handled it after coming up.

IT meant . . . Sterling's pulse stopped at the thought . . . that Miriam had added more of the deadening drops to her drink. The full six, probably. Perhaps the first few swallows of the now heavily doped liquid had knocked her off. That could account for her drinking barely a third of it. Sterling moved on to the dresser, played his light across it. Cautionally he pulled out the top drawer several inches, searched with the small beam of light. The trinkets, items of costume jewelry it revealed were of no interest to him.

He found the bag Miriam had been carrying on a chair. He opened it and carefully emptied its contents. He had no thought here of finding anything of interest. He was doing what he thought a burglar would do, if the burglar were looking for keys. His brief survey of the dressing table and dresser had convinced him that his earlier reasoning had been correct: Miriam had needed her keys to lock up her necklace. . . . That was why she had not left her car key with him before coming upstairs.

Sterling stood again beside the bed, near the head. He was steeling himself for a final preliminary . . . one that might make unnecessary the more hazardous part of his prowling venture. He bent over and waited until his vision could define the outline of that exposed arm, the shoulder bare except for the flimsy strap of the sheer gown. Bending closer, Sterling steadied himself with the pencil flashlight pointed at the shoulder, a bare six inches distant. He flicked on the light, let the tiny luminous circle follow the curve of a breast to the V of the gown, let it tarry just briefly on the slender throat, then shut it off. There had been no answering flash of light.

STERLING straightened, trembling from the strain of that brief ordeal. . . . He turned toward the wall beside the head of the bed. He remembered a small teakwood table that stood there, the tall heavy candlestick on it. He reached over that impediment carefully to push aside a framed watercolor, held it aside while he used the flashlight to locate the thin keyhole in the circular embedded safe-door. He slipped in the long flat key on Miriam's key-ring, turned it until he heard a click, then pulled out the compact little door.

Pausing only to glance quickly at the bed, Sterling played his flashlight into the round cavity, to be startled by an answering deluge of dazzling flashes. His wife's necklace lay just inside the opening. Evidently she had put it in the safe hurriedly, not even taking time to put it in its box. Sterling transferred it to a side pocket, still intent upon the inside of the small safe. Also toward the front lay a fat packet, envelope size. Bonds, perhaps, he thought, or possibly currency. He decided that a burglar would take it. He slipped the packet into an inside coat pocket. As an afterthought, he brushed some papers from the safe to the floor.

A sound reached him from the bed . . . a break in that faint, regular breathing . . . a choked, incoherent word. Sterling hugged back against the wall, beyond the small table with its tall candlestick, listening, waiting breathlessly. (To Be Continued)

State Nominees May Revive Lincoln-Douglas Debates

Quincy, Ill., July 2—(AP)—A possible revival of the colorful Illinois political campaign tactics of the Lincoln-Douglas era was suggested tonight in a challenge by the Democratic Illinois Senatorial nominee to his GOP opponent.

Paul H. Douglas, in an address here tonight, invited Senator C. Wayland Brooks (R-Ill.) to join him in a series of debates in the cities where Lincoln and Douglas wrangled 90 years ago.

Local Couple Wed In Lovely Rites Friday Afternoon

Salem Evangelical Lutheran church was the scene of a pretty wedding ceremony Friday afternoon when Miss Joyce Kehl, daughter of Mrs. Lois Kehl, 760 West Douglas avenue, became the bride of Henry J. Reinders, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Reinders, 515 South Church street.

The vows were pledged in a double-ring service performed at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. Herman H. Koppelman, pastor, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

For the wedding occasion, the altar of the church was decorated with a profusion of white gladioli, arranged amidst pink carnations and blue delphiniums.

Traditional Marches Used

Miss Wanda Harrell was the soloist. She sang "Because" and "Through the Years." The traditional wedding marches were played by Walter Deffner, who also served as accompanist for Miss Harrell.

Miss Fannie Reinders, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor. The best man was Charles Aguilar of Champaign. Seating the guests were Jerry Reinders, brother of the bridegroom, and Donald Scott.

Of white organdy, the gown worn by the bride was fashioned with a shadow-sheer yoke of marquisette which lent an off-the-shoulder effect to the scalloped neckline, long sleeves tapering to points over the wrists, and a flared skirt edged with three rows of scallops. Rows of scallops also accented the waistline.

Carries White Bible

The blusher veil was of white marquisette and was held in place with a tiara of fluted organdy. As her only jewelry, the bride wore a cameo necklace, given her by the groom. A white orchid, tied with ribbon streamers, topped the white Bible which she carried.

Miss Reinders was attired in a gown of pale blue organdy, styled similarly to that worn by the bride. She wore a half hat of fluted organdy and mitts in matching color. Her colonial bouquet was of mixed flowers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kehl wore a gray afternoon dress with white accessories. A similar color combination was chosen by the bridegroom's mother. Both had corsages of white carnations.

Will Live Here

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left for their wedding trip. Upon returning, they will make their home at 1127 Mound avenue.

Mrs. Reinders was graduated from Jacksonville High school in 1945 and attended Wayne University at Detroit, Mich., for two years. She has been employed at the Public Library.

Her husband, a veteran of World War II, served in the U. S. Navy for three years. He was graduated from Jacksonville High school in 1944 and is now attending Illinois college, where he is studying business administration.

Paul Armstrong Named Selective Service Director

Springfield, Ill., July 2—(AP)—Gov. Green today nominated Paul Armstrong to be state director of selective service.

Armstrong was the wartime director of the draft for Illinois and has recently been director of the office of Selective Service records.

The nomination of Armstrong must be confirmed by President Truman.

There will be 228 local boards under the new draft as compared with 361 during the war.

Of the 228 boards, 81 will be in Chicago, 18 in Cook county outside Chicago and 129 downstate.

Summer Program Of Girl Scouts In Full Swing

The second week of the annual Girl Scout summer program has just been successfully completed. Mrs. John Taylor, program chairman of the Jacksonville Girl Scout council, announced yesterday. A six-week project, the program will continue until August 1.

Included in the schedule are the following activities: tennis, taught at 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. each Friday at the MacMurray courts; Junior life saving, taught at 9:30 a.m. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at the Nichols park pool; a photography group which meets each Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., and an outdoor cooking and backyard camping section, meeting at 4:30 p.m. each Thursday.

Overnight camping trips are being arranged for Senior Scouts, and the first will be taken July 11 to the Engelbach cabin. Also planned is a clothing kit group, which will work with Mrs. Hugh Beggs in preparing clothing kits for overseas. Members of this group will probably hold their first meeting next week.

Swimming lessons are also being sponsored by the Girl Scouts, in cooperation with the Y.

The summer Scout program is staffed entirely by volunteer workers. In charge of the photography group are Francis Frisch and Margaret Kennedy. Barbara Black and Josephine Sweeney are chairmen of the outdoor cooking section, and Mary Frye is instructing the girls in tennis.

All Scouts are welcome to join any of the above activities, with the exception of the Life Saving group. Those wishing to do so should register at the Girl Scout office as soon as possible.

City, state and county police were on the lookout Friday for Robert Lence who escaped from the veterans' building at the Jacksonville State Hospital late Thursday night. His absence was noticed by employees at 11:10 p. m. and reported to the police station.

Lance, a twenty-year-old veteran of World War II, was committed to the hospital from Champaign on February 6 of this year.

At the time of his escape Lence was wearing a tan jacket and dark trousers. He is approximately five feet seven inches in height, weighs 136 pounds and has brown eyes and dark hair.

Lloyd Gohn Back From St. Charles Delinquency Meet

Lloyd G. Gohn, executive secretary of the Morgan County Committee for Youth and Community Service, has returned from St. Charles, Ill., where he conferred with officials of the St. Charles School for Boys on problems relating to juvenile delinquency.

The committee which Mr. Gohn represents has been active in this community since last fall. Its primary purpose is to study outstanding social conditions and to make recommendations for improving those conditions. Its work thus far has been devoted largely to recreation planning and to conducting a survey through the local schools to determine the recreation and leisure time habits of young people in the community.

Mr. Gohn was accompanied to St. Charles by Frank Baker, regional supervisor of the Division for Youth and Community Service.

Greek Offensive Gains Momentum

Athens, July 2—(AP)—Greek army troops plucked away at dogged rebel defenders in north Greece today as the government offensive showed signs of gaining momentum, press dispatches said.

The Greek Second division pushed beyond Orlika Heights west of Grevena, and the Ninth captured Fourina, west of Konitsa. The two divisions evidently aimed at a juncture near Samarino.

Such a juncture would cut in half territory held by Communist Chief Markos Vafiades' rebels.

Big Independence Day Celebration Will Get Underway This Evening

Nichols park ball diamond will be the scene of a gala three-day celebration July 3, 4 and 5. The affair will get underway this evening at 9:00 p.m., daylight time, with a professional vaudeville show. The celebration is sponsored by the Recreation club.

The Recreation club felt that there was a definite need for an organized Independence day celebration in the Jacksonville area. This project was instituted to meet the need, under the direction of Ralph Cowgur, club president, and Nate Egner, chairman of the three-day celebration.

After the program Saturday night, the next event will be a free show Sunday afternoon. The Buckeye Four and the Shady Valley Folks will give several short acts. Sunday night these same performers will put on a two hour show in front of the ball stadium. This show begins at 8:15 p.m.

Monday afternoon there will be another short free show. Monday evening professional talent imported from St. Louis and the Virginia Bucheroos will put on a gala two-hour show.

Fireworks At 10 P.M.
Recreation officials have announced that the huge $1,000 fireworks display should get underway about 10 p.m. This show will be the largest in Jacksonville since the days of the State Hospital displays when all Jacksonville thrilled to the spectacular aerial displays.

The site of the show will probably be across the lake, on Country Club grounds. It will be viewed from the Nichols park side, in front of the open.

There will be ample parking space outside the ball park. Picnic tables, fire places, and picnic grounds will be available for those who wish to bring their lunches. In case of rain, Nichols park picnic shelter will be the place to go.

First Aid Tent
First aid equipment will be located in the stadium at the ball park. A first aid tent may be set up on the grounds.

Hon. Earl B. Searcy Inaugurates Officers Of Illini Girls' State

In formal inauguration ceremonies held last night in MacMurray college music hall auditorium, the seven newly-elected state officials of Illini Girls' State received their oaths of office from the Hon. Earle B. Searcy, clerk of the Illinois Supreme Court. The badges signifying their offices were presented to them by last year's officials.

The following girls were inaugurated: Pauline Corder, governor; Elaine Esch, lieutenant governor; Jean Cicciarielli, secretary of state; Claudine Bacus, treasurer; Dede Steffenhofer, attorney general; and Kiki Burger, superintendent of public instruction. Donna Barclay, five of public accounts, was not able to be inaugurated during the formal ceremony because she had been called home yesterday by the death of her grandfather.

"We're mighty proud of her," said Mr. and Mrs. Paul Corder of Quincy when asked what they thought of their daughter's election to the higher office in Illini Girls' State. Mr. and Mrs. Corder came down yesterday evening for the inauguration ceremonies. Dressed in a pink and white formal, brunette Pauline Corder received her badge of office from the 1947 governor, Carlee Chester of Alton.

No afternoon program was held yesterday at Girls' State, because the counselors and 1947 officials were too busy with their new duties in the dining hall. The regular waitresses went home for the July 4 holidays, so the Girls' State officers took over in the emergency.

This afternoon the girls will be taken on tours of Jacksonville, and in the evening they will have a formal banquet, at which final awards will be made. A dance will follow the banquet.

Mrs. Spencer Ewing, chairman of the Country Women's Council, will report on the program of work for the A.C.W.W. She will present highlights from the Amsterdam conference and will show a film made during the sessions.

The program will also include information on school reorganization and recruitment of home economists. Approximately half of the conference time will be devoted to organizational problems. Delegates will report on membership, financial problems and program plans and developments.

Morgan and Scott counties will be presented at the conference by Mrs. Harold Joy, county chairman, and Mrs. Ed E. Abers, second vice chairman.

Four Win Suits For Divorce

Three divorce decrees on grounds of desertion and another on extreme and repeated cruelty were rendered Wednesday in circuit court here with Judge Clem Smith presiding.

Marjorie E. Bourn was awarded a divorce from Lloyd B. Bourn on grounds of willful desertion. She was given custody of a child and payment from the defendant for its support.

Finding the defendant guilty of extreme and repeated cruelty, the court found in favor of Betty L. Curry in her suit against Claude A. Curry. The plaintiff was also granted restoration of her maiden name.

Vern L. Thomas won a decree of divorce from Mamie E. Thomas as did Margaret M. Schott from Irby M. Schott. The plaintiffs in both suits charged desertion.

BIRTHDAY DINNER AT PARK

A birthday dinner was given at Nichols Park honoring Franklin Stephen McDaniel and his sister, Angie Dalton. Those present were Ida McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hacker, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon McPherson and daughter, Linda, Inez, Doris and Robert Pullam, Muriel Dalton of this city and Howard Meadows of Alexander.
